

- Do you understand the grant writing process and what you need to know to submit a winning proposal?
- Do you know where to find funding for your programs?
- Do you have research tools that help you to justify the need you want to address?

All About Grants

Learn how to write winning proposals and obtain the grant funding you need

Wednesday,
October 26th

College of The Albemarle,
Elizabeth City Campus
John Wood Foreman Building
Room 121-A

Facilitated by Olga Abrams, certified grant-writer, reviewer and consultant

This is a two-part seminar:

Grant Writing 101

9:00 a.m. to Noon

- Fundamentals of grant writing
- Step-by-step instruction on the grant writing process
- Discussion on the different components of a grant proposal from preparation through submission.
- Traits of a professional grant writer

Grant Writing 102 (has a prerequisite of 101)

1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

- Funding sources are provided as a foundation for the participant to expand upon
- Discussion on research tools
- Reflect and apply what was learned in 101
- Write various components of a grant proposal
- Interactive, educational, and fun!

*Brought to you by the College of The
Albemarle Small Business Center, the
Elizabeth City Area
Chamber of Commerce, and Downtown
Elizabeth City*

Cost to attend is $15 per session - includes refreshments and materials

To register, call the Small Business Center at (252)335-0821, ext. 2231 or email joyce_crudup@albemarle.edu